*"I committed to myself for two weeks. The reason I was not selling any products is because I gained weight and I was feeling insecure, I was very depressed. So, I decided to start again, seeing many people interested in the tea gave me the motivation to start drinking it myself and be a product of the product. I stopped eating fried foods, fast food, and sugar. I started eating more vegetables, lentils, beans, and ate less meats and drank more water. For exercise I did 10 second planks like 10 times a day or every time I had an opportunity. I also went for walks"****
