

Essential Oils

•Pleasant Scents •Multiple Benefits

Blood Orange

The health benefits of Blood Orange can be attributed to its properties and uses as an antidepressant, anti-inflammatory, antispasmodic, antiseptic, aphrodisiac and mood relaxing agent. This oil is extracted from 100%-pure, premium-grade orange peel and brings a clean scent of oranges into the aromatherapy experience.

Frankincense

Known as the “Mother of all essential oils”, Frankincense is considered sacred in the Middle East. This oil is best known for its use in aromatherapy to improve one’s mood and relieve stress. Frankincense oil is 100%-pure, premium-grade Boswellia Frereana Birdwood from Oman. This oil provides a perfect opportunity to calm your mind and collect your thoughts.

Gladiator

Gladiator Essential Oil is a 100%-pure, proprietary blend of cinnamon bark, rosemary Maroc, eucalyptus, lemon and clove bud. This oil blend can provide antimicrobial, anti-fungal and antiviral benefits. Gladiator oil may help support the immune system and can be diluted with water for use as a hand cleaner.

Peppermint

Peppermint oil is an ideal choice for invigorating the mind, improving mood and relaxing the nervous system. It also has analgesic, anti-inflammatory and antispasmodic properties that may relieve pain and calm the spasms that cause muscle cramps.

Lemon Zest

Lemon oil is used for its anti-fungal, antibacterial and cleansing qualities. Its wonderfully-clean scent can help reduce stress and uplift your mood. Lemon Zest is a 100%-pure, premium-grade blend that is steam distilled. It can be used with filtered water as a hand wash and in aromatherapy to increase alertness and concentration.

Tea Tree

Tea Tree oil is produced through the steam distillation of the leaves and twigs of the Tea Tree, Melaleuca Alternifolia. This oil is believed to be one of the most effective home remedies for acne. Tea Tree oil can produce the same cleansing and healing effects as benzoyl peroxide, yet not result in the peeling or reddening of the skin.

Uplifting

Uplifting oil combines Clay Sage, Bergamot, Ylang Ylang and the Sweet Orange essential oil into the perfect aromatic experience. This combination brings the best properties of all four into a single relaxing experience. The aroma can produce a calming effect that heightens the mood and clears the mind.

Wild Lavender

Wild Lavender is used in folk traditions throughout the world. This oil produces a calming sensation and provides antiseptic and anti-inflammatory benefits. Wild Lavender essential oil is a natural treatment for burns and can help relieve the pain and itching produced by insect stings.
