iaso[®] Slim^{PM}

Slim^{PM} is a unique, high-quality formulation synergistically designed to target cardiovascular health by utilizing a combination of anti-oxidant components and L-Arginine to assist in endothelial cell cleansing, fat burning, and increased Nitric Oxide (NO) production.

Endothelium cells line the interior surface of blood vessels and lymphatic vessels, creating a boundary between circulating blood and the vessel walls. Slim^{PM} assists in cleansing both vascular and lymphatic endothelial cells uniquely provides powerful fat burning through Leptin control and other attributes.

The cumulative effect of cardiovascular health, anti-oxidation, endothelial cell cleansing, and fat burning enables a number of components to provide double and even triple duty solutions for all the three targeted areas. Every component has been carefully integrated to provide maximum health effect and not marketing hype. A great product, a great story, a first to market in every respect!

Our formula includes powerful antioxidants that may assist in free radical scavenging and enhance cell repair. Slim^{PM} is also designed to improve the health integrity of endothelial cells that can become clogged with contaminants.

Instructions

Dissolve one or two scoops of product into fourteen to sixteen ounces of water. Adjust to meet individual taste preferences.

Body Health

Slim^{PM} is formulated to help stimulate the production of anti-aging mechanisms in people over the age of twenty-three. It also may assist in the toning and enhancement of body muscle mass when used as part of regular and sustained physical exercise routine.

Our formula is designed to improve cardiovascular wellness. Helping produce Nitric-Oxide (NO) which leads to vasodilation of the arteries and improved cardiovascular health for improved blood flow and circulation.

Consistent usage of Slim^{PM} may assist in Leptin control. It may also increase nitric oxide to levels within the body that improve fat burning during the day and at night. Providing antioxidant benefits including nitric free radical scavenging. Helping repair and improve endothelial cell functioning.
