

Techui

Techui is a 100%-refined spirulina powder, a nutritious form of alkaline food. It is rich in protein, vitamins, minerals, chlorophyll and other essential nutrients that are needed daily. Spirulina protein may help regulate blood sugar, blood pressure, and cholesterol levels. It's believed to reduce inflammation, balance the immune system and improve digestion by restoring intestinal flora.

Iaso® Techui

Used by the Aztecs centuries ago, spirulina became increasingly popular in the 1970's when NASA astronauts included this supplement in their diet.

Gram for gram spirulina may literally be the most nutritious food on the planet. It's outstanding nutritional profile, high protein and low calorie count provides the body with excellent nutrients. In addition, Techui helps to boost energy levels and enhance physical stamina.

Spirulina, which is derived from freshwater blue-green algae, is now one of the most studied and discussed "superfood" nutritional supplements. As a dietary supplement, adults should take two capsules per day.

Active Ingredient

100%-Refined Spirulina Powder

Spirulina is a natural alga (cyanobacteria) powder that has high protein content. It provides antioxidants, B-vitamins and other nutrients. Gram-for-gram, spirulina may be the most nutritious food available worldwide.

Benefits

Highly Nutritious

Recent scientific research indicates that spirulina provides numerous health benefits. It is a good source of antioxidants, B-vitamins and potent nutrients.

Improved Body Health

Spirulina may help regulate blood sugar, blood pressure, and cholesterol levels. In addition, this supplement may help to alleviate pain, inflammation and balance the immune system.

Improved Immune System

A study conducted at the JC Bose Institute of Life Sciences (Bundelkhand University, Jhansi*) indicated spirulina improves the white blood cells, stimulates antibodies and increases the population of cells that defend the body against other harmfully-invasive cells.
